His remarks effected much satisfaction.

ESCAPE AND CAPTURE OF STEPHEN PEM-BROKE, RELATED BY HIMSELF.

Last evening STEPHEN PEMBROXE, lately the slave of Ja-cob Grove, addressed a small audience on the above subject at the Tabernacle. He said: I set out to escape from Slavery on the 1st May last, with my two sons. We walked all night, and went fifty odd miles without stop ping. We got as far as New-York City, where we were violently arrested, secured, and taken back to the South. I was treated in a bad manner here. I had no counsel, I was treated in a bad manner here. I had no counsel, and did not know what the law was. I remained fifteen days in the South under chains, locked up by night. I ate and slept chained. I was kept so till my arms swelled and my appetite was gone. I was so until I was bought through the benevolence of the public and the exertions of my brother, whom I had not seen for 30 years. Some suppose Slavery not to be what it is said to be, but I am right down upon it. I was fifty years in it, and it has many degrees. I have been in three of them. In thirty years I was sold three times. I served one men for twenty years. He was a rigid and wheked man. I have seen meatied up, and whipped, shot, and starved. Then there was a moderate degree; and then I got into that, which I left, after being twenty years in it. It has left life in me, that is all. I served a man twenty years for $400, and then he wanted $1,000 for me, after starving, me and depriving me of all the comforts of life and the worship of God. The slave never knows when he is to be seized and scourged. My father was sold five times. The last time he was knocked down and seized by three men. I have seen men working all day, day in and day out, with iron collars on their necks, and so locked up at night, getting a pound of corn bread and half a pound of meat. I would rather die the death of the righteous than be a slave always under dread and never getting a good word. I need to say to my master, "I am getting old and ought to have some rest:" but he would naswer, "No, Sir; if you speak about freedom, "I will sell you further South." For the last twenty years I had a free wife, and but for her habor I believe, without the mercy of God, I would be this night in my grave. My pursuers were, I believe, in the same train by which I errived here at 5 in the evening, and I was arrested at 73 o'clock next morning. My pursuer told me there was a watch round the house all night. I had no counsel and did not know the law, nor what I should say, so I thought it better to let t and did not know what the law was. I remained fifteen days in the South under chains, locked up by night. I ing urder fear of slavery, silhough legally manuanteed, he found it hard to get him to walk about freely in the streets. He mentioned that on the morning of the arrest he was told at the station-house that the examination would be at 11 o clock. He went to the Marshal between 10 and 11, and was told it would be between 12 and 1. He called again, and was told he would see all the parties there between 4 and 5. He went at 33, and was told they were just 10 minutes gone. He pleaded for the release of his nephews, the sons of Pembroke.

Mr. A. A. Sraka then exhibited to the audience, by means of his powerful microscope, several of the wonders of the minute animal and vegetable creation, with appropriate explanations and remarks. The audience seemed highly pleased and interested.

The meeting then adjourned.

THE LATE PATAL ACCIDEST ON THE THIRD-AV. RAIL-BOAD.—Coroner Hilton yesterday held an inquest at the New-York Hospital upon the body of John Mullins, a native of Ireland, 40 years of age, who was run over on the 5th inst. by a Third-av. car, and died on Sunday from the effects of the injuries received. Considerable evidence was taken, most of which went to show that the car was running at a moderate rate of speed at the time and that deceased, instead of having it stopped when he wished to leave it, got off while it was in motion, and in so doing slipped, and fell before the wheel, which passed over his foot, crushing it in a shocking manner. The Jury revidered a verdict of accidental death, and exonerated the driver of the car from all blame.

FATAL JUMP FROM A WINDOW .- A young man, name Alex. McBride, on Sunday night jumped from a third story window at No. 44 Robinson-st., and died yesterday. It appears that he had been ill for some time with Chagres fever, and the ringing of the fire bells so alarme him that he sprang out of bed and jumped out of the window. An inquest will be held on the body to-day. The deceased was respectably connected, and has near relatives residing in Philadelphia, to whom word has been sent of his death.

The child was in bed with its mother and rolled from the bed to the window, the blinds of which were shat but not fastened: Its weight forced them open and it fell to the pavement and sustained a frightful fracture of the skull, which produced death. Coroner O Donnell held an inquest upon the body and the jury rendered a verdict of accidental death.

ANOTHER FATAL FALL.—At a late hour on Sunday night an Italian named Leon Lefino, fell from a window in the third story of his boarding-house, No. 17 Orange-st., to the pavement, and was instantly killed. The deceased was 35 years of age and an automatical man.

Smith of No. 41 East Twenty-fifth-st. The ticket which Smith purchased cost 12; cents and had for its combinations the Nos. 9, 13 and 29, known among policy men as a "gig." It is hinted that he recently won a prize, but falling to get the money to which he was entitled he entered a complaint against Robinson. The accused was taken before Justice Osborne and held to bail to answer the charge.

DISHONEST SERVANT.—Jane Mischau, a servant in the family of Mr. Wm. LAW INTELLIGENCE.

MARINE COURT—Before Judge McCarrey.
UNSUCCESSFUL SUIT AGAINST A BAILHOAD COMPANT.
Edwin Butler agt. The Hodson River Railroad Co.

Action is foroight to recover 6124, the alleged value, Frederick having assigned his interest in the said goods to Edwin Butler, the plaintiff.

signed his interest in the said goods to Lawin batter, the plaintiff.

In defense, it is said that the goods were handed to the agents as a part of the personal baggage of Frederick, and consequently were put in the baggage-car instead of the freight-car, as they would have been had their real character been represented and freight paid on them according to the rules of the line; and that, in passing the freight as baggage, the plaintiff cannot maintain the setten, the contract having been to carry personal baggage, but instead of which merchandise was delivered, as to which the Company made no contract. The Court sustained the position and gave judgment for defendant.

CONDITION OF THE STEAMSHIP FRANKLIN.

We announced in our Morning Edition that intelligence reached this City at a late hour last evening, that the U.S. Mail steamship Franklin, Capt. Wotton, from Havre, had gone ashere near Morriches, L. L. 70 miles from New-York, during the morning, in a fog. Accompanying this was the gratifying fact that the passengers were all safe.

Immediately on the receipt of this information the underwriters dispatched assistance to the ship. This morning at an early hour the powerful steam tugs Achilles, Underwriter, Hector, and Titan, with three schooners, were sent down to her assistance, with anchors, cables, steam-pumps, lifts, and all the requisite implements for assisting her in her emergency. If the steam-tug Leviathan, now below near the Hock, should reach the City in season, she will also be sent on the same errand.

It appears that the Franklin arrived off the east end of Long Island on Sunday night, but owing to the fog had to feel her way cautiously. When she went ashore, she was proceeding at a low rate of speed. As she lay at the last advices, if this weather should hold, her safety is but little jeoparded. She hes nearly broad-side on shore, her head a point off, in fifteen feet of water, on a sandy Her draft of water, is eighteen feet six inches; but the landing of her passengers have materially light-ened her, and should the steamtogs and schooners arrive in time to approach her at high tide, a good share of her cargo—some 800 tuns of fine goods—will at once be taken out, and in that event she may possibly be got off to-

When she went ashore, efforts to get her off having proved futile, anchors were hove out to prevent her drifting farther on, and guns fired for assistance from the shore. As soon as possible, the requisite assistance was furnished from the station of the Life Saving Benevolent Association of New-York, located at Morriches, and the whole of the passengers landed in safety. Many of them arrived in this City by the Long Island train last night, The remainder, principally ladies and their friends, pre-ferred to remain in comfortable quarters in the farmhouses, until this morning, when they set out for the City.

The Franklin was built in 1850, by Messrs. Westerveit & Mackay, and was the consort of the Humboldt, wrecked last December near Halifax. She is insured for $300,000 in New-York, London and Paris. The New-York offices, principally the Atlantic, Sun and Mercantile, are respon-

The statement in a certain morning paper, that the Franklin is likely to prove a total loss, is flatly contradicted by her owners and the officers of the Atlantic Insurance Company. On the contrary, they assert that when last heard from she was tight and easy.

Postscript.-Information from the Franklin up to 9 o'olock this morning has been received. She was resting easy, and with the steam-tug and lighters would probably be gotten off.

LATEST FROM ACAPULCO—THE REVOLUTION GAINING GROUND—VICTORY OF THE INSURGENTS—OUTRAGES COMMITTED BY THE GOVERNMENT TROOPS.

SURGENTS—OUTRAGES COMMITTED BY THE GOVERNMENT TROOPS.

From The New Orleans Delta of July 2.

We are indebted to our attentive correspondent at Acapulco for a copy of the official Builetin of the Revolutionists, dated the 14th of June, from which we extract the following important items of news from the seat of war. The revolution, having for its besis the plan of Ayutia, is daily gaining ground, and nearly all the towns and cities of Guerrero, and many towns in other States, to wit: Michoacan, Chiapas, Vera Cruz, Yucatan, Tehnantepec, San Luis, Mexico, and Tamanipus have sent in their adhesion to the newly-essablished Government of Alvarez—the leadership of which Government, it is believed, will be tendered to Ex-President Ceballos—now an exile in the United States.

The Prefect of the city of Ignols, in the State of Michoacan, finding the city threatened by Villalba, an intrepid insurgent chieftain, sent to Mexico for troops to defend the city. The Metamoras batallion—the 11th of the line—was dispatched to the assistance of the place, but on anyiving near their destination, this batallion pronounced in favor of the Ayutla plan, joined the forces under Alvarez, and was hourly expected at Cuantia. In the Cerro Gordo del Gallo, Don Pascual Ascensis, a veteran patriot, is at the head of 800 troops, awaiting the orders of Alvarez. The majority of the people of Ayushitan have seconded the plan, and are ready to sustain the position which they have taken.

The murderer, Casio Bahamende, has cowardy fled to majority of the people of Nysatain the position which they have taken.

The murderer, Casio Bahamende, has cowardly fled to the interior of Michoscan, which State has simost unanimously adopted the plan, and pronounced in favor of Alvacez. Don Juan Bautista Soils was appointed, by Santa Anna, Prefect of Galeana and captain of the auxiliary troops in that city. On his way thither, however, to enter upon the duties of his appointment, he was taken prisoner by a party of the revolutionists under Sr. Bordeja. He had in his possession several valuable documents, and letters from Gen. Blanco, Minister of War; one of which letters was addressed to Bordeja himself, and contained an offer to bribe that chief to desert the cause of Alvares and return to his allegiance—which offer he indignantly repelled, and was rewarded by Alvarez for his fidelity with promotion.

The intrepid Secor Villalba, encountered a superior force of the government troops on the seth of May, at a place called "La Orace del Muerto," which had sallied forth from Ignola, in pursuit of him. After a desperate battle of two hours duration, the enseny were completely routed and put to likint, with the loss of a large number of killed, wounded and prisoners, as also considerable baggage, arms and munitions of war. All the prisoners were shortly afterwards set at liberty, with the exception of Captain Bancos, who was shot, "in just reprisal," says The Bulkeness, who was shot, "in just reprisal, "anys The Bulkeness, who was shot, "in just reprisal, "anys The Bulkeness, who was shot, "in just reprisal, "anys The Bulkeness, who was shot, "in just reprisal, "anys The Bulkeness, and bearbarously disposed of all our prisoners. On the 6th of June, Don Juan de Nava, in command of a small delachment of the insurgments, finding himself completely surrounded and hemmed in at a place called Santa Cruz, by a detachment of 500 active troops from Moselin, boldly cut his way through them and made good his retreat, carrying with him a considerable quantity of spoils, and leaving a dozen of the enemy dead upon the ground.

his retreat, carrying with him a considerable quantity of spoils, and leaving a dozen of the enemy dead upon the ground.

The Bulletia states that the crucities committed in the District of Costa Chica by the brigade of Gen. Naviega, who was left in command of the army of operations by Santa Arma, when he fied to Mexico, are, for atrocity, unparalleled in the sanals of warface. Naviega is laying waste the country by fire and sword, burning towns and hamlets, and mardering the unoffending inhabitants.

In regard to the capture and execution of Capt. Manuel Gonzaga Zimenez and Lieut. Roman Carrena, of which we have already given the account received by way of Mexico. The Bulletin gives us the following relation: The place in which these officers, with a small detachment of troops, were excamped, had been denounced to Naviega by a traiter, a strong force was dispatched to the place, and they were surrounded, surprised and captured. Cormens's head was immediately cut off. Captain Zimenez was then bound, by order of Tejada, to the dead body of his late companion in arms, and left in that position during an entire day, when he was taken out and shot. A few days subsequent the commandants, Prieto and Tejada, started out on a foray, in which they pillaged and burnt several houses and ranches in the vicinity of San Marcas, and murdered in cold blood a youth aged about twelve years, whom they met on the way conencting some mules loaded with sait. Twelve persons besides the above, generally tarmers and inoffensive persons, have been massecred by order of Naviega.

BY TELEGRAPH TO THE NEW-YORK TRIBUNK

FURTHER FROM MEXICO-DEATH OF EX-GOV-ERNOR TOWNS OF GA. BALTIMORE, Tuesday, July 18.

Baltimore, Tuesday, July 18.

New Orleans papers of Wednesday last are received.—

They contain the details of the news from the City of Mexice to the 3d inst. The official journal contradicts the slarms relative to the insurrection in the department of Micmoacan, represents the rebels as defeated, their leader imprisoned, and Antoine Chacon, Chief of the rebels, shot. Other accounts show the insurrection to have been general, and still in progress.

The Universal says a report was spread abroad that Alvarez was dangerously ill, and not expected to recover; while another paper has it that he was dead, but that his friends were trying to keep it secret. These statements need confirmation.

A skirmish had taken place between the insurgents and the Government forces, in which the latter lost ten saddle horses and $600 in money.

A severe rain storm had visited Vera Cruz, causing ome damage to railroad bridges, &c. Ex-Governor Towns of Georgia is dead. FROM WASHINGTON.

XXXIIId CONGRESS FIRST SESSION.

SENATE....Washington, Tuesday, July 18, 1254.

Mr. ADAMS moved to take up the bill granting a pension to the Widow of Bachelder, who was killed in Bossion to the Widow of Bachelder, who was killed in Boston. Objected to.

Mr. SUMNER presented a memorial of the Pennsylvania Society for the Abolition of Slavery, urging the repeal of the Fugitive Slave Law, arguing that under the tenth section of the law a free colored man had already been sent back to slavery.

A personal debate then ensued between Mr. CLAY and Mr. SUMNER.

Mr. DAWSON denied the statement of facts.

Mr. RUSK said that in the papers accompanying the petition was one to the reception of which he objected. It reflected grossly and falsely on the South.

Mr. MASON said that a Sensor presenting a paper was responsible for it. He asked that it may be read. It was then read, after which a long debate ensued.

The debate continued till after 12 o cleck when the subject was laid on the table.—Teas 37; Nays 14.

Mr. BADGER asked leave to withdraw his motion to reconsider the vote passing the Pacific Telegraph bill: reconsider the vote passing the Pacific Telegraph bill: Leave granted. Yeas, 20; Nays, 19. Mr. BADGER then withdrew his motion, and the bill is Dow passed.

The Homestead bill was then taken up.

The Homestead bill was then taken up.

Mr. STUART, at the suggestion of the friends of the Homestead bill, but agrinst his own judgment, withdrew his substitute for the bill, but before doing so defeated it.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Mr. PHILLIPS asked leave to introduce a bill providing that all territory acquired from Mexico under the late Gadsden treaty be incorporated with New-Mexico, subject to all laws of the last-named Territory. He said gentlemen would ree at once the necessity and propriety of passing this bill. The territory recently acquired is now without law, and there are no Courts there for the enforcement of the law. As the territory is open for settlement, there should be law there for the protection of the people. He hoped there would be no objection to the bill.

Mr. CHANDLER—Does the bill come from any committee?

mittee!
Mr. PHILLIPS-It does not; nor was it necessary any ommittee should consider it.
Mr. CHANDLEE-How can we know what is our teritory before running a boundary line?

Mr. PHILLIPS—We all know that the territory from Mexico, just acquired, is annexed.

Mr. CHANDLER—But the Commissioners are to settle e boundaries. Mr. PHILLIPS-That makes no difficulty. We an the boundaries.

Mr. PHILLIPS—That makes no difficulty. We annexed Texas before the boundaries were defined.

Mr. PECKHAM—Are any people there? I object.

Mr. PHILLIPS asked him to withdraw his objection.

Mr. PECKHAM thought the matter could remain as it is for a short time without hurring anybody.

The House then took up the bill to repeal so much of the act of August 39, 1852, as makes a reduction of flity per cent on prepaid postage on newspapers and periodicals.

Mr. OLDS, as the bill was thoroughly understood, proposed to put the bill on its passage.

Mr. WASHBURNE [Me.] hoped the bill would not be passed. There was no occasion for it. He did not believe that it was demanded by the wants of the country. At the present time the Post-Office Department is a saif-sustaining machine. He wanted the matter sent to the Committee of the Whole on the State of the Union.

Mr. GERRIT SMITH remarked that the gantleman from Virginia Smith the other day asked "will you not have the Post Office Department sustain itself. He answered he would not.

Resolved, That the Bar will attend his funeral, and will wear the search basies of mourning.

Mr. LORD, in offering the resolutions, said it was not with a view of setting forth in the hearing of those present the merits of Mr. Biunt; they all knew him; next to the office the Chairman filled was that which Mr. Blunt filled; and in the midst of the corruption known and charged to individually, he (Mr. Lord) never heard of the slightest imputation on the character of the Mr. Bluat; he would now read the resolutions, and leave it to others to speak to the merits and character of the decease i. Ex-Recorder TALMADOR then seconded the resolutions, and said that in doing so it was unnecessary for him to say a word on the public character of Mr. Blunt to those who composed this meeting; but it was in his private character that he had seen him. The Ex-Recorder then proceeded to describe the deceased in his domestic relations, and said that as a son, a husband, and a father, he could not be ex-ceeded. The Hon. JOHN McKRON then addressed the meeting, and described him in his political and public relations and described and in a politicism, he had the confidence and respect of his party; and in his official capacity, he had the confidence end respect of the public. He has now passed from us to the grave, and it may well be engraved on his tomb-tone that "here lies an honest man."

Mr. C. SCHAFFER next addressed the meeting and en-logized Mr. Blunt's professional industry and energy, which was peculiar to bimself. He drank deeply, said Mr. S., of natural and moral philosophy, and his exten-Mr. S., or natural and moral phicosophy, and als exten-sive knowledge and research as a lawyer was not ex-ceeded by any member of the profession. Mr. Jonas Phillips then addressed the meeting, and after speaking to the merits of the deceased, said he concurred with his brethren in the entogy and sympathy which they expressed for the loss they all had sustained. Mr. James T. Brany then addressed the meeting under feelings of great emotion. After some preliminary re-marks, he said he remembered with gratitude all curouraged him with a smile at the commencement of his professional career; but there was none among them so well remembered as the smiles and encouragement he received from his Brother Buat. encouragement he received from his Brother Blunt. It was but a few days since he parted with him, and received the last grasp of his hand. He was then in pursuit of pleasure, and it was not true, as was stated in zone of the papers, that his death was caused by the incessant labors of his profession. He had a constitution equal to the greatest labor, but his death arrose from one of those inevitable circumstances over which we have no centrel.

Mr. Bradt next addressed the meeting. He proceeded to Deleging the private and public life of his deceased

Mr. BRADY next addressed the meeting. The proceeded to eulogize the private and public life of his deceased friend, and suggested that at a future meeting of the Bar some more substantial proof of their love for his memory should be brought forward. Mr. Tontisson next followed with a few observations. He said that he would not take up the time of the meet-ing by any remarks if he had not studied his profession in the office of the deceased, and in conclusion he urged upon the meeting the suggestion of Mr. Brady. NEW FERRY AT STATES ISLAND .- The four ferry-boats, the Josephine, Hunchback, Columbus and Sylph, from Whitehall, have commenced their half-hour trips, and are running regularly to and from Townsend's Dock. This is a new wharf recently completed, covering five acres of ground, and is situated at Cliften, about a mile and a half distant from the Narrows. In some respects this dock surpasses any other, having a greater depth of water and better harbor in rough weather. The increase of travel on this ferry is truly astonishing. In the spring two boats transported all the passengers; now the above-named boats are necessary for the travel. They run full, and all touch at Quarantine, Stapleton and Vanderbilt's Landing, as well as at Townsend's Dock.

He was finally strapped on a cart and taken to the City Hall when, on complaint of Mr. Van Orden for resisting his authority, he was fined 37 50 by Justice Smith.
